

The Company of Furniture Makers'

Royal Charter Dinner

Furniture Makers Hall

Thursday 7 November 2024

The Company of Furniture Makers' celebrated their Tenth Anniversary of the granting of their Royal Charter at a Dinner in their own elegant Furniture Makers' Hall. The Master and her Consort a Liveryman Furniture Maker were delighted to attend this special occasion.

It was an excellent evening which started with a Reception, followed by a sumptuous three course dinner, fine wine, company of esteemed guests and a great harpist as entertainment.

The Lord Kirkham KCVO, Charity President of the Company was the guest of honour and he announced the winner of the inaugural Graham Kirkham Award, an accolade recognising exceptional individuals who have made an outstanding contributions to The Company. The wonderful evening ended with the the traditional stirrup cup and ample opportunities for networking.
