

WLCOW COURT LUNCHEON

On Tuesday 1st March 2022, St David's Day, the Livery Company of Wales held its Court Luncheon at the Michelin star restaurant "Home" by James Sommerin in Penarth, Wales. We all congratulated James on receiving a Michelin Star for his new restaurant

Following the Master's warm welcome, Court Assistants and guests sat down to a sumptuous 3 course meal prepared by the renowned chef patron James Sommerin, pictured here with the Master. Canapes and sparkling wine were followed by an inventive beetroot starter. The main course was perfectly prepared monkfish, and the dessert was the renowned soufflé. The Senior Warden offered the loyal toast and a remembrance of the people of Ukraine. The Master thanked the Court for its support during her year and congratulated James and his team for a brilliant St David's Day experience and a wonderful celebration of the achievements of the WLCOW Court this year
