

WHO IS ARTIST BILLY BAGILHOLE?

Billy Bagilhole is one of Wales' most exciting young artists and one of 150 artists from all corners of the world who are being worked on the wall of the famous Art Biennale exhibition in the City of Chengdu, China, next month.

He currently has a solo exhibition at The Blue Shop Cottage gallery in London and in two weeks' time his work will be located next door to famous artists such as Mark Titchner, Anish Kapoor, Maggi Hambling and Joanna Lumley in a gallery to raise money for the Combat Stress charity.

Originally from Pwllheli in the Llŷn Peninsula but now living in London since studying Celf Gywrain at the Chelsea College of Arts, A Living Wales had a glimpse of the world and mentality of the man behind the brush.

Footnote: Billy Bagilhole was the WLCOW winner of the North Wales Eric Sunderland Memorial Award in 2020
