

ADMISSION AND CLOTHING OF NEW LIVERYMAN

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

3RD DECEMBER 2024

At an Admission Ceremony on Tuesday 3 December 2024 held at St. John the Baptist Church, Cardiff, two new Liverymen were formally clothed, admitted and welcomed to the WLCow.

Chengfeng Li
Professor of Civil Engineering
Liveryman No:554

Stephen Ley
Lord of Treffos
Wales Air
Ambulance Charity
Liveryman No: 551

In keeping with the Master's aim to increase membership and for members to introduce new members, Stephen Ley and Chengfeng Li were introduced and proposed by the Master. Increasing membership enables the future sustainability of our unique Company!

Following the Admission Ceremony, the Lessons and Carols Service followed. The Livery Chaplain the Reverend Sarah Jones led the Service accompanied by the organist Philip Thomas and three choristers from the Oratory Cardiff.

Approximately sixty Liverymen and Guests attended the after Service Dinner at the Cardiff and County Club. Dinner was a festive three course meal which was preceded by a Drinks Reception. Esteemed guests included the Lord Lieutenant of Gwent , HH Neil Bidder, Professor Hywel Thomas, Professor Xie visiting from China and PM Engineer Barry Brooks. Our two new Liverymen Chengfeng Li, Stephen Ley, new Treasurer Colin Morris and new Clerk David Sneddon were introduced and formally welcomed by the Master on behalf of the WLCow.

It was an excellent day with good food, wine and convivial company. A night of fellowship !

Agnes Xavier-Phillips JP DL
Master 2024-2025
Worshipful Company of Wales

