

WLCow Silver Jubilee Funded Award to Sam Clements, Marie Curie.

The Master attended the virtual launch of the Marie Curie Great Daffodil Appeal 2022 where she had been asked to make a presentation to our Silver Jubilee funded Award winner Sam Clements.

Chris Martin Chair of the Trustees hosted this excellent evening and Jane Hutt, MS

Well done Sam! A very well deserved promotion too and already making an impact as Wales' new Head of Quality and Clinical Practice 🙌

Absolutely delighted for Sam. Congratulations! During my time at Marie Curie, I have heard such wonderful comments from service users and families about the care and support Sam has given them.

Congratulations Sam :) Really deserved!

launched the event. We enjoyed a screening of a special video featuring a newly commissioned poem called "Repurposing", written by award winning Welsh poet, Eurig Salisbury. The video was narrated by Iolo Williams, Welsh TV presenter.

Matthew Reed the CEO of Marie Curie spoke about the future of palliative care and the Health Minister Eluned Morgan MS gave a full update on funding.

The Master was then delighted to speak about the work of the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales and in particular the Silver Jubilee Appeal which had made this Award possible. Sam's colleagues expressed their delight at Sam's success in the 'chat'. Sam responded with thanks and gave an update on his research and on his new post as Head of Quality and Clinical Practice for Marie Curie in Wales. We are delighted that Sam will be speaking at the WLCow Award's Celebration Dinner on the 4th of March at the Sophia Gardens Stadium. Well done Sam!
