

COLEG GWENT APPRENTICES AWARDS

The Master and Liveryman Keith Shankland presented Awards to 8 Apprentices studying at Coleg Gwent at the Parkway Hotel, Cwmbran on Thursday 16th June 2022.

The Awards, which were co funded by the Haberdashers Company, were given to the top apprentices from 7 courses in the College as well as the overall Apprentice of the year Matthew Catlin, a civil engineering student who has now completed his studies and is working for Atkins on the A465 dualling scheme between Dowlais top and Hirwaun.

The Awards event was attended by the winners, their employers and family members. Most of the winners were employed by small local businesses with a commitment to support their employees with day release to attend courses at Coleg Gwent campuses in Blaenau Gwent, Crosskeys, Newport and Torfaen