

HMS CAMBRIA - MARTINIQUE DINNER 2022

The Formal Celebration of the Naval Victory in Martinique, 1779, is an annual dinner hosted at HMS Cambria. Due to COVID this has been postponed twice so the long-awaited event was celebrated in style on April 2nd, 2022.

Commander Priest welcomed: the Lord Lieutenant of South Glamorgan, Morfudd Meredith, the WLCow Master, Dr. Kathy Seddon, Col. Dominic Morgan, The Lord and Lady Mayoress of Cardiff, Rod and Sue Mckerlich.

The Guest Speaker was Captain Duncan McCue

It was good to hear that URNU Wales are hugely grateful for the WLCow sponsorship of an annual student award The Royal Naval Unit (URNU) Wales is based, as a lodger Unit, in HMS CAMBRIA in Cardiff Bay. The aim of the URNU mission is "To inspire individuals through leadership and maritime training, whilst facilitating a career in the Royal Navy for those who choose". They work with Universities across Wales to offer this training.

The Dinner was very enjoyable and it was a pleasure to represent the Company and to remember Past Master Bryan Marsh who instigated the Award.
