

London Walk Event

Liverymen and guests met to walk around the Sky Gardens at the Walkie Talkie building in central London on Wednesday 18th May and then enjoyed an early supper at the Chef's Table in Darwin Brasserie. The event was organised by the newly re-formed London group managed by co-chairs, Stephen Richards and Kim Insley.

We were delighted to have the Master and Christine join us as well as three past-Masters, Kathy Seddon, Gillian Davies and Sarah Cockbill.

All twelve of us enjoyed the views from the 35th and 36th floor, and the Master was adept at pointing different views of London! Below are a few of the many photos taken during our walk around the Sky Gardens.

Can you see Tower Bridge? (We can't, but they can – it's just under Stuart's arm!)
