

WINNER OF THE WILLIAM MATHIAS AWARD 2017/2018

The North Wales Committee recently announced that Thalia Lichtenstein has been awarded the William Mathias Award for this Livery year. She is a very talented cellist and was very appreciative of the Award which will enable her to continue with her training at William Mathias.

Thalia is in the First Year Sixth form at Dyffryn Ogwen school, Bethesda. She has been playing the cello since she was nine years of age and is a member of the North Wales Youth Orchestra and the Gwynedd County Orchestra as well as in a local cello Ensemble and Quartet.

She hopes to study Marine Biology at University while continuing to play the cello.
