

UPDATE ON THE GREEN CANOPY CAMPAIGN IN NORTH WALES

The Prunus subhirtella autumnalis rosea, planted on 17th Feb 2022 by the Lord Lieutenant of Clwyd in the presence of the Lord Bishop of St Asaph, civic and church dignitaries, Liverymen and the then Master, Dr Kathy Seddon, began flowering on cue in November and has carried on ever since. Here it is in the St Asaph Parish Church grounds on Sunday 5th March 2023, smothered in delicate pink blossom and bringing a touch of brightness to these chilly days. The tree was among those planted by the Company to contribute to The Queen's Green Canopy. Apart from some careful watering early on, it
