

ACADEMIC MEDICINE AWARD, CARDIFF UNIVERSITY – DAN THOMAS

Dan is in the final year of his Medical degree at Cardiff. He is a Welsh speaker educated at Glan Taff and does much to promote medicine at Welsh Conferences and Colleges

He will work in emergency medicine in Wales when qualified next year and his Award will allow him to travel to Fiji to undertake an elective in the CWM Hospital in Suva. He will be a part of the emergency medical team which relies less on technology Learning diagnostics from Fijian doctors will inform his practice going forward
