

THE WLCOW WELCOME NEW HONORARY FREEMEN

Dr Ami Jones in now a WLCOW Honorary Freeman

Ami is a Consultant in ICM/ anaesthetics/ PHEMSouth Wales for ABUHB/EMRTS. PHEM consultant and clinical lead consultant for EMRTS Cymru. She is a RAMS Officer. Experienced in training and validating high performing healthcare teams. Amy received an MBE for her outstanding contributions to military and civilian pre-hospital critical care. She completed a number of tours in Afghanistan. Ami helped set up a defined prehospital medicine pathway in the UK, which is generating a steady stream of pre-hospital consultants. She continues to work with Wales Air Ambulance. Dr. Jones is an Honorary Senior Lecturer at Bangor University, an Honorary Lecturer at Cardiff University Medical School, and an examiner for both the Diploma and Fellowship in Immediate Medical Care and the Diploma in Retrieval Transfer Medicine with the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

IT WAS ALSO AGREED BY COURT THAT AWARD WINNER COMMUNITY (AWC) MEMBERS SHOULD BE INVITED TO BECOME WLCOW FREEMEN AT A NOMINAL COST. THE MASTER CLOTHED THE FIRST GROUP OF AWC MEMBERS WHO TOOK UP THE OFFER AND PICTURED BELOW ARE :

Dr Shannon Edwards- Community Medicine, pictured with The Master Mr Henry Gilbert

Mr Aden Yipp - Violinist – Violinist receiving, pictured with the Master Mr Henry Gilbert

Dr Ross Davey – Improving Medical Teaching, pictured with the Master Mr Henry Gilbert

Dr Kate Townsley – Community Care for the Autistic, pictured with the Master Mr Henry Gilbert